

Radio Broadcasts

May-September 2006

Where to Listen

To find a local radio station airing these broadcasts, phone 1-800-732-7587. Or go to the Voice of Prophecy's website (www.vop.com) and click on "Stations." To listen on your computer or WebTV, click on "Today's Broadcast" or "Previous Broadcasts." Due to preemptions by individual stations, some programs may not be aired on the scheduled dates.

How to Order a CD

The messages of most VOP radio broadcasts are available on CD following the air dates listed. The cost is $5 for each Sunday CD and $5 for each Monday-Friday series (1 week on 1 CD). U.S. funds only. Outside North America, please add $2 per CD (sent by airmail). Order by using the numbers listed with each title. Send your check to the address below. We accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover, and American Express. When using a credit card, include the full account number, expiration date, the 3-digit number from the back of the card, and your signature.

Daily: May 1-5

Daniel's Prophecies: Your Future - 1 (CD #6D18)

The book of Daniel has a winning combination of stories and prophecies that make it one of the most interesting books in the Bible. But did you know that each of the stories is tied to a prophecy? We'll focus on stories this week in preparation for better understanding the prophecies.

Sunday: May 7

Ecclesiastes: Learning From Life's Lesson Book (CD #6S19)

Solomon had it all—wisdom, wealth, power. But he had a lot to learn that only life could teach him, and he shares life's lessons with us in this book.

Daily: May 8-12

Daniel's Prophecies: Your Future - 2 (CD #6D19)

Can you find the number 666 in the Old Testament? Join us this week as we continue our study of Daniel, focusing on the stories and prophecies, and you'll learn that Revelation's not the only place where a series of sixes spells trouble!

Sunday: May 14

Song of Solomon: God's Love Song (CD #6S20)

God is love, and this ancient song reminds us that love itself is a precious gift from God.

Daily: May 15-19

Daniel's Prophecies: Your Future - 3 (CD #6D20)

The book of Daniel was written in Babylon, not Egypt, but there's a pyramid there nonetheless! And if you understand Daniel's pyramid, it will help you better understand both the stories and the prophecies. Join us for some pyramid sleuthing this week!

Sunday: May 21

Isaiah: Hope in the Ashes (CD #6S21)

Isaiah could see the sins of his people, and the disaster it was bringing upon them. But he could also see hope over the horizon, and pointed his people forward to their Savior.

Daily: May 22-26

Daniel's Prophecies: Your Future - 4 (CD #6D21)

Get ready for some serious digging in the prophecies of Daniel as we finish our study of this great Old Testament book. There will be beasts and horns all over the place, but we'll help you get it all sorted out so it makes sense!

Sunday: May 28

Jeremiah: A Call to Heart Religion (CD #6S22)

Jeremiah lived in tough times—the world seemed to be coming apart at the seams. Some people thought all that was needed was more religious ceremonies. But Jeremiah called them—and us—to something deeper.

Daily: May 29-June 2

What's It All About? - 1 (CD #6D22)

Life can be tough—the apostle Peter understood that. He lived in a time when Christians were being burned as torches in Rome. Join us as we begin a three-week study of the first epistle of Peter—a letter that reveals how to live as a victorious Christian even when times are tough.

Sunday: June 4

Lamentations: Jeremiah's Sorrow (CD #6S23)

After 40 years of trying to turn people back to the Lord, Jeremiah witnessed the results of their continued rebellion—the destruction of Jerusalem. In Lamentations he expresses his sorrow, but also his hope that God will forgive and restore.

Daily: June 5-9

What's It All About? - 2 (CD #6D23)

Submission and Suffering are two S-words we'd rather not hear much about, but Peter doesn't deny that they may be a part of our life. Join us as we let him explain how to deal with them, and to find joy in our journey.

Sunday: June 11

Ezekiel: Hope for the Future (CD #6S24)

Ezekiel prophesied in difficult days, when judgments had fallen on God's people, and more trouble loomed on the horizon. But mixed with his message of doom is a vision of a better future, and God's directions for achieving it.

Daily: June 12-16

What's It All About? - 3 (CD #6D24)

Some people think Christians are strange—and maybe we should be. According to 1 Peter, we should stand out as different from those around us, and our study this week will reveal how we can best represent Jesus in a world that calls us to conformity.

Sunday: June 18

Daniel: Vision for the Future (CD #6S25)

Daniel's stories and prophecies reveal God's interest in our world and our future. Better yet they help us catch a glimpse of what lies ahead for our planet. Join us for a quick review of the message of one of the Old Testament's most powerful prophets.

Daily: June 19-23

The Just Shall Live - 1 (CD #6D25)

What's the real bottom line of Christianity? Is it how we live, or what Jesus has done for us? Some people think Justification by Faith is an old, rather vague concept that doesn't really affect life in the real world. Listen this week, and you'll know why they're wrong.

Sunday: June 25

Hosea: The Pleading Prophet (CD #6S26)

It seemed he came out of nowhere to call Israel's leaders back to faith in the Lord. Hosea's whole life was a parable of God's people's unfaithfulness. His words portrayed the stark contrast between what God wanted to do for His people and the results of their rebellion.

Daily: June 26-30

The Just Shall Live - 2 (CD #6D26)

If you were being mugged in a dark alley, would it make you feel any better to know the mugger was a member of the same Christian denomination as you? Does being a Christian really change how we live, or is Justification just a concept people use to make them feel OK about what they do?

Sunday: July 2

Joel: Joy in a Time of Sorrow (CD #6S27)

Prophesying during a time when everything seemed to be going wrong, Joel offered a prescription for repentance, and a vision of God's desire to do good things for His people. His vision can give us renewed hope today.

Daily: July 3-7

The Just Shall Live - 3 (CD #6D27)

Unfortunately, many people who claim to be Christians don't let their religion interfere with their lifestyle. How is it possible to let our beliefs change us without becoming legalistic? We'll have practical answers this week.

Sunday: July 9

Amos: A Plea for Justice (CD #6S28)

In a world nation sated with prosperity, a prophet suddenly appeared to tell the people that their lifestyle, and even their worship services were not pleasing to God. Does his message need to be repeated in our world?

Daily: July 10-14

The Just Shall Live - 4 (CD #6D28)

If you were on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you? What kind of evidence would stand up in court? And what is it that can help Christians really behave like Christ? These are practical questions that demand answers. Join us as we conclude our series on Justification by Faith.

Sunday: July 16

Jonah and the Judgment Prophets (CD #6S29)

Jonah wasn't the only prophet who was sent to proclaim a message of doom to a wicked nation. Obadiah, Nahum, and Zephaniah had similar messages. Are their messages relevant today? What can we learn from these men whom God called to a difficult mission?

Daily: July 17-21

Sunshine in My Cell Today (CD #6D29)

Don and Yvonne McClure have devoted their lives to bringing the light of the gospel to men and women in prison. Join us for a fascinating week of stories and inspiration—and join them in bringing paper sunshine to prison cells around the world.

Sunday: July 23

Prophets in Search of Justice (CD #6S30)

Is life supposed to be fair? Are we supposed to get what we deserve? Habakkuk and other prophets cried out to the Lord for justice to be done, but never lost sight of the grace that gives us what a loving God wants us to have, instead of what we deserve.

Daily: July 24-28

Gracious Tethers (CD #6D30)

"I surrender all!" We love to sing it, but do we love to do it? How is it possible to be totally surrendered to God's will? This week we'll be looking at the sturdy ropes of grace that bind us to the heart of God and ensure our safety—as long as we don't untie them.

Sunday: July 30

Haggai & Zechariah: Bridge Builders for God (CD #6S31)

There is a long gap between the time of the Old Testament and the time of the New. Without the work of Haggai and Zechariah, the gap might never have been bridged successfully.

Daily: July 31-August 4

Burned Out on Being Good - 1 (CD #6D31)

Do you ever feel like you're hoeing weeds in your life—just trying to get rid of all the little sins and temptations that plague you so you can "be good"? Well, that's a quick route to burnout. There really is a better way. Join us for this refreshing series on grace-filled Christian living.

Sunday: August 6

Malachi: Preparing for the Kingdom (CD #6S32)

Malachi was the last prophet of the Old Testament, and he carried the heavy burden of preparing people for the coming Messiah. How can His message help us be ready for the Second Coming?

Daily: August 7-11

Burned Out on Being Good - 2 (CD #6D32)

Fellowship and joy should be a part of our Christian walk, but how do we make that practical—especially if church is more about criticism and gossip. Join us this week for some practical ideas on returning to joy in your journey—and bringing others along with you.

Sunday: August 13

Matthew: The King Has Come! (CD #6S33)

The Gospel of Matthew announces the good news that the hopes of all the ages have finally been fulfilled. Not only has Israel's King come, He is still with us—until the end of the age.

Daily: August 14-18

The Four Faces of Jesus - 1 (Matthew) (CD #6D33)

Each of the four Gospel writers had a special emphasis. As we begin a four-part series, we look at Matthew's kingly portrait of Jesus.

Sunday: August 20

Mark: Following Jesus (CD #6S34)

Mark's is the shortest of the four Gospels. It takes us on a quick tour of the news about what Jesus did while here on earth and introduces us to the Savior who is also a Servant.

Daily: August 21-25

The Four Faces of Jesus - 2 (Mark) (CD #6D34)

In Mark we meet a very human Jesus—a Savior who suffers with us and is well acquainted with our needs. We'll walk with Jesus and come to know Him on a very personal level this week.

Sunday: August 27

Luke: A Gospel for All People (CD #6S35)

Meet Jesus as the apostle to the Gentiles would like you to know Him. Paul's traveling companion, the physician Luke, reveals aspects of Jesus' ministry that help us to better understand Jesus' mission to the whole world.

Daily: Aug. 28-Sept. 1

The Four Faces of Jesus - 3 (Luke) (CD #6D35)

Luke the physician wants us to meet Jesus as our Savior and the One who bears our burdens in life. Join us as we take a look at Jesus through the eyes of this man who came to know his Savior through the ministry of the apostle Paul.

Sunday: September 3

John: Behold the Lamb of God (CD #6S36)

At the end of his long life, the beloved disciple sat down to write the story of Jesus in a way that would help us find deep, lasting faith in the ministry of our Savior.

Daily: September 4-8

The Four Faces of Jesus - 4 (John) (CD #6D36)

In John's Gospel we meet Jesus as the beloved disciple remembered Him many years after His return to heaven—as a Man who brought us knowledge of the better world to which we're all invited.

Sunday: September 10

Acts: Unlimited Power (CD #6S37)

The news about Jesus spread like wildfire through the ancient world. The book of Acts reveals how the Holy Spirit worked—and how He still works today.

Daily: September 11-15

Where Is God? (CD #6D37)

When earthquakes, tsunamis, and terrorists strike, wiping out thousands of lives in the blink of an eye, or when cancer or crime threaten one life at a time, where is God? Can we still believe in a loving Redeemer when all around us seems to be falling apart?
